

Spatial Distribution of Tacoma Average Median Income (AMI)

Laurel Hicks

A model of the spatial distribution of the Average Median Income (AMI) in the City of Tacoma presented through 3D Isarithmic mapping techniques. Areas of higher AMI are symbolized on the green end of the spectrum while lower incomes are shown in red. More concentrated areas of shared income are in seen in dips and hills.

Streets

Income

High : $139,374

Low : $11,659

Resources/References:

Cartographer/GIS Analyst: Laurel Hicks

Contact: hicksr@uw.edu,

Created: 4/21/2020 ArcGIS 10.7.1

Projection: Lambert Conformal Conic

Projected Coordinate System: NAD 1983 HARN State Plane Washington South FIPS 4602 Feet

Data Source: UW Tacoma GIS 312 Lab Data,

Pierce County Open GeoSpatial Data Portal; 2011-2020