

MY HOME

My hometown is Olympia, Washington, located just about 30 minutes South of Tacoma and home to the state capital. While some elements are highlighted to show Olympia's commitment to connecting the community to natural spaces, the main focus of the map shows the three parks that were my favorite when I lived in Olympia and the bike path that I used to get there.

My Favorite Parks

Chehalis Western Trail

Budd Inlet

Resources & References:
Cartographer/GIS Analysis: Laurel Hicks
Contact: hickslr@uw.edu
Created: January 23rd, 2020
Geographic Coordinate System: GCS_North American 1983 HARN
Projection: Lambert Conformal Conic
Projected Coordinate System: NAD 1983 HARN StatePlane Washington